

Privacy Policy

Thank you for visiting www.cityofwestpark.org. Your privacy is very important to us. Our policy is to collect no personal information about you when you visit www.cityofwestpark.org, unless you affirmatively choose to make such information available to us.

When you visit www.cityofwestpark.org, the web server automatically recognizes only the internet domain and IP address from which you accessed the site. This information does not result in the identification of your personal e-mail address or other personal information.

In addition, information is only gathered regarding the volume and timing of access to the site by collecting information on the date, time and pages you visited while at the site. This is done so that the content of the site can be improved. This information is not shared with other organizations. Again, only aggregate information is collected and your personal information is not identified.

If you choose to share personal information, such as sending a message, registering on our website or filling out an electronic form with personal information, the information will only be used for the purposed you authorized. Some of this information may be saved for a designated period of time in order to comply with the State of Florida Public Record Policies. However, information will not be disclosed to third parties or other government agencies, unless required by state or federal law.

E-mail Addresses

Under Florida law, e-mail addresses are public records. If you do not want your e-mail address released in response to a public records request, do not send electronic mail to this entity. Instead, contact the City by phone or regular mail.
